WELCOME

Lifelong learning matters to us - we want to make a difference to people's lives. ACL Essex is not just about second chances; it's about third, fourth, fifth and sixth chances. In fact, it is about helping you achieve the goals you have set your sights on, throughout your life. But it is much more than skills and qualifications, crucial as they are, it is also about making sure you flourish; your health and wellbeing, your sense of community belonging, and your confidence and belief in yourself.

We aim to provide you with as many ways to flourish as possible. We are there in communities across Essex, to make a difference to residents and businesses, so everyone has the chance to make a difference for themselves and to the places that they live in.

CONTINUOUS QUALITY IMPROVEMENT

By carefully monitoring our service quality, we ensure that we are giving you the best possible value for money. Each year we develop a service quality improvement plan which is reviewed regularly to monitor our performance; including an annual self-assessment report which involves feedback from learners and other service users. This feedback is collected through learner end of course evaluations, learner focus groups and National Surveys. All of which helps to inform us on how we can further develop our service and improve your learning experience with ACL.

ACL LEARNER FORUM

If you are a learner enrolled on a course with Adult Learning, or an employer involved with ACL then you can apply. We are looking for members who reflect the diversity of our learner group. So, whatever your age or experience we'd really like to hear from you.

The Learner Forum is the best opportunity for our learners to share their ideas about what ACL is doing well, how we can improve and what new things we should be thinking about.

What will the Learner Forum do?

- Provide opportunities for learners to make suggestions of what could go into learning programmes
- Help staff analyse and act on information from learner surveys and participation reports
- Enable learners to meet and share experiences and ideas with other learners, and with staff
- Enable learners to express their concerns and ensure that Adult Learning responds appropriately to the issues that are raised
- Help ensure accessibility by road testing evaluation forms, systems and changes in policy etc.
- Provide an ongoing consultation role for ACL staff and our Governing Body.

How often does the forum meet?

As a member of the Forum member you would be expected to attend up to four meetings during the year. Whilst our centres have limited opening these meetings will be held online via MS Teams. As a learner we can provide you with Office 365 to access this on your own devices.

Who attends the meetings?

In addition to Learner Forum members, meetings are attended as needed by members of the leadership teams and other ACL staff, depending on the meeting agenda.

What are the benefits of forum membership?

Taking part in a learner forum is a great way to develop confidence, organisational, and communication skills. It is a voluntary role, and experience as a forum member will enhance your CV. Additionally, you will be able to make a positive contribution to the development of ACL's service.

How do I join?

If you are interested in joining the ACL Learner Forum or require further information please email teresa.ablewhite@essex.gov.uk or call on 03330139227.

NEW COURSE IDEAS

Do you have an idea for a new course? If so, we'd really like to hear from you. You can speak to any of our frontline staff or you can write your ideas on our Ideas Wall at some of our centres. Please ask at Customer Services.

LEARNER ID CARDS

ACL Essex strives to provide a safe and secure environment for all who visit its premises. A key aspect of discharging this responsibility is to have an effective way of controlling and monitoring who is on ACL premises with a card identification system.

- All staff are required to wear a blue, staff lanyard with an ECC ID photo card.
- All visitors are required to wear a red, visitor lanyard with a Visitor's ID badge which they are given when they sign in at Customer Services.

All learners are issued with an ID badge and green lanyard by Customer Services during their first session when enrolled on courses for more than one day. ID cards must be worn at all times by learners. Anyone who forgets their ID card will be asked to obtain a Visitors pass from Customer Services. If attending a course that is one day or less, they will be required to wear a visitors' badge.

This information is kept securely and only shared with your tutors and the safeguarding team, although in the event of a Safeguarding or Prevent concern information may also be shared with additional third parties.

We have a 'Your Wellbeing' area on our Virtual Learning Environment where we provide information and guidance to signpost you to other services and organisations that can support you.

SAFEGUARDING AND PREVENT

ACL takes its responsibility to safeguard all learners and staff seriously. It is recognised that any adults/young people could potentially be the victim of abuse including radicalisation and the service operates the following policies to address these risks.

- Adult Safeguarding Policy
- Children and Young People safeguarding Policy
- Harassment and Bullying policy
- Fitness to Learn Policy
- Computer Use policy including On-Line Safety

Safeguarding and Prevent is the responsibility of us all. It is about protecting those who may be vulnerable from a wide range of harm and ensuring that they feel safe. Abuse can be physical, emotional, sexual, neglect, bullying, including cyber bullying, as well as a range of wider issues including Prevent, which is the Government's strategy to wipe out radicalisation.

Safeguarding is only effective when we all take responsibility for looking out for each other.

If you have concerns, or someone has disclosed abuse to you, speak to your tutor, a member of staff or contact the ACL Safeguarding Senior Officer Emma Thomson on 07788 301629 or email emma.thomson@essex.gov.uk

BRITISH VALUES

Part of the Government's Prevent agenda is British Values.

ACL promotes British Values which are: democracy, rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance for those with different faiths and beliefs, through encouraging the development of skills and attributes that enable us to contribute positively to life in modern Britain.

A short video showing where you can find these values within ACL will be shown to you by your tutor at the start of your course

EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY

We are committed to fairness and equality of access, opportunity and outcome for all learners and potential learners. We oppose discrimination in any form and have a commitment to making our courses inclusive and available to all.

Therefore, we positively welcome enrolments from everyone, regardless of age, culture, disability, ethnicity, gender, race, religion/belief and sexual orientation.

When appropriate and possible we will make reasonable adjustments to ensure all learners gain the most from their learning experience.

REMOTE LEARNING/LEARNING ONLINE

Remote learning takes place when a learner and member of staff giving instruction are not in the same place and the learning session is instead delivered through downloading information, telephone calls, webinars, or live streaming. This may be a part of curriculum design or as part of a response to ACL closure arrangements.

ONLINE LEARNING GUIDELINES

- Be on time. Sessions will start and finish according to the timetable. If you join late, please don't interrupt the session. Remain silent. Your tutor will support you.
- Be prepared. Come to the meeting with a positive attitude and with any course materials or resources that you have been asked to have ready
- Where possible, choose a quiet location – away from pets, children, etc. Turn off the TV and any music.
- Be ready to take part. Not everybody is confident in speaking up within a group, especially when you don't already know other learners. However, to make the most of your learning experience we ask that you share ideas, ask questions, and contribute to the discussions.

SECURITY

- Remember that your password is the only thing protecting you from pranks or more serious harm.
- Don't share your password with anyone.
- Change your password if you think someone else might know it.
- Only share an email address or other personal information if necessary.
- If using a webcam, think about what is behind you in view – is it something you don't want others to see?

WHEN COMMUNICATING ONLINE YOU SHOULD ALWAYS:

- Be respectful of others and their opinions.
- Be careful with personal information (both yours and others').
- Beware of using reply all – does everyone need to see your message?
- Remember to stay on topic. Is this relevant to your subject?
- Remember to listen and not talk over each other – this comes with practice! Mute yourself when not talking.
- The site's owners and moderators have the final say in enforcing the rules.
- Please do not write or say anything that you wouldn't say to someone's face and always think about how you would feel if you were receiving it.
- Please remember we still need to keep each other safe. If you are concerned about your own or another person's safety, please tell your tutor or report it using the Safeguarding number.

Working Safely with Display Screen Equipment (DSE)

While preparing and/or participating in distance learning learners are responsible for looking after their own health. This includes ensuring they have adequate arrangements in place to maintain good posture and reduce Display Screen Equipment (DSE) related risks.

Staying Safe Online

HEALTH AND SAFETY

ACL operates within the Essex County Council Health and Safety Policy, the ACL Learner Charter, and Essex County Council Corporate Health and Safety guidelines. Copies of the ACL Code of Practice are available at each centre as well as online via the ACL virtual learning environment. The Service will ensure that there is an awareness of safety issues among all staff and, so far as it is reasonably practicable, that the health and safety of non-employees who may be affected by its work activities are not endangered. Our learners have a role in this, and we would ask you to please be alert to potential risks and report anything you think could be a danger straight away to the reception staff or your tutor.

As part of your learning experience we will include guidance as to:

- | |
|---|
| • the importance of health and safety |
| • how hazards are identified, and risks assessed |
| • how to play an active part in developing a set of safe behaviours, |
| • how to acquire practical, transferable skills from your learning experience |

Health and Safety will be covered as part of your induction to the course and by the end of your first class you should be clear about:

- | |
|--|
| • emergency arrangements |
| • any significant risks that may affect you |
| • control measures for the risks |
| • supervision arrangements and the contact person for any health and safety concerns |
| • any restrictions or prohibitions that apply in the learning situation and premises |
| • any personal protective equipment or clothing that you must wear |
| • accident reporting |
| • any health and safety rules (“dos” and “don’ts”). |

GENERAL DATA PROTECTION REGULATION (GDPR)

Data Protection

Your personal information is used by the DfE to exercise its functions and to meet its statutory responsibilities, including under the Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 and to create and maintain a unique learner number (ULN) and a personal learning record (PLR). Your information will be securely destroyed after it is no longer required for these purposes.

Your information may be shared with third parties for education, training, employment and well-being related purposes, including for research. This will only take place where the law allows it and the sharing is in compliance with data protection legislation.

The English European Social Fund (ESF) Managing Authority (or agents acting on its behalf) may contact you in order for them to carry out research and evaluation to inform the effectiveness of training.

Further information about use of and access to your personal data, details of organisations with whom we regularly share data, information about how long we retain your data, and how to change your consent to being contacted, please visit: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/esfa-privacy-notice>

PLAGIARISM

If you are studying an accredited programme, there may be varied forms of assessment. Usually assessment will involve the production of written work (coursework). Your tutor will provide guidance about the format, style and content of the written assessment, including advice on how to use written sources (i.e. information from books, periodicals, articles, the internet etc.). It is very important not to copy sections of any written source that you use and pass it off as your own work. This is called “plagiarism”.

Plagiarism involves taking someone else’s words, thoughts or ideas and trying to pass them off as your own. It is a form of cheating which is taken very seriously.

Don’t think you won’t be caught; there are many ways to detect plagiarism.

- Markers can spot changes in the style of writing and use of language.
- Markers are highly experienced subject specialists who are very familiar with work on the topic concerned – they may have read the source you are using, (or even marked the essay you have copied from).
- Internet search engines and specialised computer software can be used to match phrases or pieces of text with original sources and to detect changes in the grammar and style of writing or punctuation.

If your work is submitted and it is discovered that you have broken the regulations, one of the following penalties will be applied:

- The piece of work will be awarded zero marks
- You will be disqualified from that unit for the examination series in question
- You will be disqualified from the whole subject for that examination series
- You will be disqualified from all subjects and barred from entering again for a period of time.
- If you have copied from another learner, they may also have the above penalties applied.

Your awarding body will decide which penalty is appropriate.

REMEMBER IT’S YOUR QUALIFICATION SO IT NEEDS TO BE YOUR OWN WORK

HELP WITH COURSE FEES

There are several options available to help reduce financial barriers to learning. Our teams are always on hand to answer any questions you may have. Alternatively visit our website <https://aclessex.com/funding-support/>

ACL receives funding from the Education and Skills Funding Agency to deliver courses to Essex residents. This funding could cover some or all the costs of your course depending on your circumstances or prior achievements. A few examples are below but please come and talk to us so we can see what you may be entitled to.

- Maths and English courses including GCSEs could be free if you don't already have a C/4 grade or equivalent
- Essential Digital Skills programmes could be free for those with basic IT skills assessed below level 1
- If you are unemployed or earning a gross annual income of £18,525 or less you could be eligible to complete a level 2 accredited course without charge
- The Level 3 Entitlement means that adults without a full level 3 qualification eg. A Levels or an Advanced Diploma, or are earning a gross annual income of £18,525 or less, could undertake an accredited course that's fully funded from the National Skills Fund.
- Advanced Learner Loans are available for courses at levels 3 to 6 and are only paid back once you start earning £27,295 a year (before tax and other deductions)
- Support with travel costs, childcare and course materials including books, laptop loan and WiFi could be available whilst you study if you have either a gross household income of less than £30,000k per annum (not including house shares, or where rent is paid separately) or a personal gross income of less than £18,525 per annum
- If you are in receipt of certain benefits or earning a gross salary of less than £18,525 you could receive a 50% discount on non-accredited courses
- In addition to the above we have a dedicated team that provide financial advice and guidance to learners during their course should they need it.

The Discretionary Learning Support Fund can assist learners who are studying accredited courses with ACL. It can be used to help with the cost of course fees (up to 75%), childcare, study resources including compulsory books, and travel costs.

The CL Bursary Fund can assist learners who are studying non-accredited courses with ACL. It can be used to help with the cost of course fees (provided you have paid the full fee), childcare, study resources, and travel costs.

Advanced Learning Loan Bursary

This fund is for learners who are on a Level 3 course or above and have taken out a Advanced learning loan. It can be used to help with the cost of childcare, study resources including compulsory books, and travel costs.

For more details on applying visit <https://aclessex.com/funding-support/> or call 03330 321 132.

ACL ESSEX - REFUND/CANCELLATION POLICY

It is not the policy of Essex County Council to refund fees automatically when a change in circumstances prevents or discourages a learner from continuing with a particular class.

Refunds are only made on the following basis:

- If ACL Essex cancels a course before it is due to start – Full Refund
- If ACL Essex cancels a course after it has started – Full Refund
- If ACL Essex defers or changes a course and the learner is no longer able to attend – Full Refund

What if I cancel my enrolment within at least 10 working days before the course begins?

Refund of fees allowed, however an administration fee of £25 applies which will not be refunded.

What if I need to cancel my enrolment after the 10-day period has elapsed?

Refund requests for courses received less than 10 working days before commencement will only be considered in exceptional circumstances.

In exceptional circumstances, at our discretion, once courses have started refunds or a credit note may be considered. All requests for refunds should be made within two weeks of your last attendance. Please note that course fees include an administration charge of £25 which will not be refunded.

What if I find the course I have chosen is unsuitable when I turn up to the first session?

An alternative will be offered, if available, or you can have a full refund of tuition fees (less an administration fee of £25.00) provided we are notified in writing within one week of the course starting. Transfers are limited to one per enrolment within the first week of the course. Any additional transfers will be subject to a £10.00 administrative charge per transfer.

What if I opted to pay by direct debit, 19+ learning loan or instalments?

Learners deciding not to return to the course and who have paid by direct debits, 19+ loan or instalment payment arrangements, are still liable for payment of the full course fees. Fees that remain outstanding will be invoiced to students by ECC finance.

Why is my learning being assessed for a course I'm taking for pleasure?

- Learners have told us, and research shows that getting written feedback on how you are progressing can be extremely helpful.
- We want your course to meet your individual needs. An Individual Learning Plan (ILP) is a valuable working document to help you plan your learning with your tutor.
- It provides evidence for the funding bodies of the many benefits you gain from your learning, including self-esteem and improved health.
- It also provides you with a summary of the learning outcomes you have completed. This gives you a useful record of your achievements if you are aiming to progress to a further course, employment or voluntary work.
